

The First Command Privacy Policy is designed to explain what type of information we collect, how it is used, and with whom and under what circumstances it will be shared. Current clients will receive a current copy of the First Command Privacy Policy on an annual basis. Additionally, it is available on the Internet at www.firstcommmand.com and www.firstcommandbank.com.

The First Command Privacy Policy applies to First Command Financial Services, Inc., and its wholly owned subsidiary companies, including First Command Financial Planning, Inc., First Command Insurance Services, Inc., First Command Bank and First Command Europe Ltd. (together the "First Command Family of Companies").

If you have any questions about the privacy, security and protection of your information, you may write to the First Command Legal and Compliance Department, Attn. Privacy Policy, 1 FirstComm Plaza, Fort Worth, TX 76109-4999 or call 800-443-2104.

This notice replaces any previous notices provided to you by us about the privacy, security and protection of information. We may amend this notice at any time. We will inform you of changes as required by law.

1. Collection of Information

We collect information about you to provide you with superior customer service, save you time, better respond to your needs, and manage our business and risks. We collect information about you from the following sources:

- Directly from you on forms, applications, and other similar documents; via the Internet; by telephone; or otherwise. Examples of this type of information include your name, address, names of family members, marital status, Social Security Number, employment information, and financial situation, etc.
- From transactions with us or with companies through which we provide you products and services. For example, account balances, holdings, and history (bank, mutual fund, annuity, etc.); insurance coverages, limits, rates, beneficiaries, and claims history.
- From consumer report agencies, such as information relating to your creditworthiness, your credit score, credit usage, and claims history.
- From third parties to verify the information you have given us and protect against fraudulent activity as required by law.

2. Protecting Your Information

Keeping your information secure is one of our most important responsibilities. We maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards that comply with federal regulations to protect your information. We limit access to customer information to those employees and others who have a business reason to know this information. We maintain strict internal policies against unauthorized disclosure or use of client information. Even if you are no longer a customer, we will treat your information in the same manner as if you were still a customer.

3. Information Sharing With Third Parties

Individuals or companies outside the First Command Family of Companies are considered third parties. We will not share your information with third parties so they may market their products to you. Accordingly, you do not need to tell us to refrain from sharing your information with third parties.

We may share the information we collect about you with third parties only as permitted or required by law. For example, we may share information:

- With service providers that assist us with a variety of business activities, including marketing on our behalf, customer service, account administration, online support, and research.
- To protect against or prevent actual or potential fraud, unauthorized transactions, claims, or other liability.
- To process your requests or provide services regarding a financial product or service you request or authorize (such as mutual funds, financial planning services, insurance, deposit accounts, loans, credit cards, etc.). Companies with whom we may share your information in this regard include mutual fund companies, insurance companies, banks, and transfer agents which maintain your accounts.
- With government entities in response to subpoenas or regulatory requirements.
- With consumer reporting agencies and/or credit bureaus.
- Pursuant to your written consent.

All third parties with whom we share your information are required to protect the confidentiality of the information provided by us and may only disclose such information as permitted or required by law.

4. Information Sharing Within the First Command Family of Companies

The reason you share your information with us is so that we may use your information to determine whether the investment, insurance and banking products and services we offer are a good fit for you and to provide you with recommendations and service for these products and services. In order to accomplish this objective and provide the recommendations and services you request, we may share your information within our Family of Companies to ensure that the recommendations and services we provide consider your complete financial picture and complement each other.

You may direct us (1) not to share information about your creditworthiness received from you or others within our Family of Companies, and/or (2) not to market products or services to you based on information received from one of our other companies. If you are a joint consumer and opt-out, we will apply your direction only to yourself unless you specifically state that you are opting-out on behalf of all associated joint consumers. These limitations may not apply in certain circumstances permitted by law, such as if you already have a pre-existing relationship with the company desiring to market its products or services to you. Moreover, should you choose to exercise your right to prohibit sharing of information among our Family of Companies, we may be unable to establish or continue a relationship with you as your choice may limit our ability to serve you as discussed above.

To inform us about your choices, you may write to: First Command Legal and Compliance Department, Attn. Privacy Policy, 1 FirstComm Plaza, Fort Worth, TX 76109-4999 or call 800-443-2104. Your decision will not expire until you revoke it in writing.

5. Protecting Medical and Health Information

We do not share any medical or health information with third parties or within the First Command Family of Companies, except as necessary to process transactions or services you have requested or initiated or as otherwise permitted by law. For example, we may share medical or health information you have provided to us in connection with an insurance application with insurance companies to determine your eligibility or for underwriting purposes.

6. Online Security Policy

For information regarding our online security practices we invite you to review our Online Security Policy at www.firstcommand.com or www.firstcommandbank.com.

7. Making Sure Your Information Is Accurate

You have the right to review the information we have collected about you to ensure that it is accurate and current. You can also request corrections to any personal information maintained by us.

To review the information we collect about you, submit a request in writing to the First Command Legal and Compliance Department, Attn. Privacy Policy, 1 FirstComm Plaza, Fort Worth, TX 76109-4999. You must describe the kind of information you want to review and include your full name, address, telephone number, and date of birth. Upon receipt of your request, we will contact you within 30 business days to describe what information is available for your review. We will not provide information that we feel is privileged.

To correct information about you, send a written request as described above, explaining your desired correction. Upon receipt of your request, we will contact you within 30 business days to inform you whether we will make the correction or tell you why we will not. We cannot correct consumer report information, such as your credit report. To do this, you must contact the consumer report agency that provided it.

NOTICE OF ATM/NIGHT DEPOSIT FACILITY USER PRECAUTIONS

As with all financial transactions, please exercise discretion when using an automated teller machine (ATM) or night deposit facility. For your own safety, be careful. The following suggestions may be helpful.

1. Prepare for your transactions at home (for instance, by filling out a deposit slip) to minimize your time at the ATM or night deposit facility.
2. Mark each transaction in your account record, but not while at the ATM or night deposit facility. Always save your ATM receipts.

Don't leave them at the ATM or night deposit facility because they may contain important account information.

3. Compare your records with the account statements you receive.
4. Don't lend your ATM card to anyone.
5. Remember; do not leave your card at the ATM. Do not leave any documents at a night deposit facility.
6. Protect the secrecy of your Personal Identification Number (PIN). Protect your ATM card as though it were cash. Don't tell anyone your PIN. Don't give anyone information regarding your ATM card or PIN over the telephone. Never enter your PIN in any ATM that does not look genuine, has been modified, has a suspicious device attached, or is operating in a suspicious manner. Don't write your PIN where it can be discovered. For example, don't keep a note of your PIN in your wallet or purse.
7. Prevent others from seeing you enter your PIN by using your body to shield their view.
8. If you lose your ATM card or if it is stolen, promptly notify us. You should consult the other disclosures you have received about electronic fund transfers for additional information about what to do if your card is lost or stolen.
9. When you make a transaction, be aware of your surroundings. Look out for suspicious activity near the ATM or night deposit facility, particularly if it is after sunset. At night, be sure that the facility (including the parking area and walkways) is well lighted. Consider having someone accompany you when you use the facility, especially after sunset. If you observe any problem, go to another ATM or night deposit facility.
10. Don't accept assistance from anyone you don't know when using an ATM or night deposit facility.
11. If you notice anything suspicious or if any other problem arises after you have begun an ATM transaction, you may want to cancel the transaction, pocket your card and leave. You might consider using another ATM or coming back later.
12. Don't display your cash; pocket it as soon as the ATM transaction is completed and count the cash later when you are in the safety of your own car, home, or other secure surrounding.
13. At a drive-up facility, make sure all the car doors are locked and all of the windows are rolled up, except the driver's window. Keep the engine running and remain alert to your surroundings.
14. We want the ATM and night deposit facility to be safe and convenient for you. Therefore, please tell us if you know of any problem with a facility. For instance, let us know if a light is not working or there is any damage to a facility. Please report any suspicious activity or crimes to both the operator of the facility and the local law enforcement officials immediately.
